PRINCIPAL'S NEWS

In light of the emergence of more locally acquired cases in Victoria, travellers from Victoria who arrive after 27 May must observe stay at home provisions for a full 7-day period. Schools continue to follow all COVID-19 guidelines, personal hygiene, physical distancing, cleaning and record keeping practices. All students, staff, parents, carers and visitors to a school site must be well and symptom free, comply with sign-in arrangements and maintain a physical distance of 1.5m.

Parent - teacher interviews have been set for Week 10. Teachers will set up a timetable of available spots for you to meet with them about your child. You will need to book your interview online. It is always good to book your meeting early so you can lock in a time that suits you best. Bookings will open at 9:00am on Monday 7 June and close at 3:00pm Friday 18 June at www.schoolinterviews.com.au

Booking information is included in the newsletter on page 5. After that you will need to contact the teacher through the school email address to make an appointment.

The highlight of my days at the moment is reading to all classes. The book I am reading is called 'A Human for Kingsley' by Gabriel Evans. It is written from the perspective of a dog who is looking for a human. I have a few more classes to read to this week, I hope the students will enjoy it! Make sure you ask them about the book.

We look forward to a great day on Wednesday at the Athletics Carnivals.
